

1st conditional vs. 2nd conditional

I Match the beginnings of the sentences below to the correct endings:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. If we don't change our strategy soon, ...            | a. ... if there is a crisis?              |
| 2. Would you accept a position in the rival company ... | b. ... if they offered one to you?        |
| 3. They will have to work much faster ...               | c. ... I would prefer to work from home.  |
| 4. If he came to us with such an idea, ...              | d. ... if they want to meet the deadline. |
| 5. Can I count on your team ...                         | e. ... we can expect the sales to drop.   |
| 6. If I could chose, ...                                | f. ... we would probably decline.         |

II Put the verbs in the brackets into the correct tense to complete the sentences below:

- I don't think they would accept our offer even if we _____ (offer) them better conditions.
- If the meeting _____ (finish) early, we can invite the attendees to lunch.
- I will contact the supplier for you if there _____ (be) any problems with the printer.
- _____ you _____ (renegotiate) the contract if we weren't satisfied with the service provided?
- I would prefer it if I _____ (have) more time to consider.
- If you agree, I _____ (run) this past my superiors and I _____ (give) you our final answer later today.
- If the launch is successful, we _____ immediately _____ (proceed) with the communication strategy as planned.
- If we _____ (fail) to meet the deadline, would there be any penalties?