

Making suggestions

I Add the missing words to complete the suggestions below:

1. What _____ cancelling your contract?
2. If you _____ me, you should find another lawyer.
3. Have you _____ about moving to John's company?
4. We _____ ask Leila if she has any better ideas.
5. Couldn't we _____ opting for a cheaper supplier?
6. Let _____ go with your proposal.
7. It might be _____ investing in an IT start-up.
8. _____ don't we hear what Sally has to say before we make any decisions?

II Put the verbs in the brackets into the correct form to complete the sentences:

1. If you ask me, they could _____ (hire) someone to help us out.
2. Have you thought about _____ (ask) for help?
3. What about _____ (make) a break here?
4. Let's _____ (continue) after lunch.
5. When the meeting is over, we could all _____ (grab) some lunch.
6. If our team cannot perform the task well, it might be worth _____ outsourcing.
7. Why don't you _____ (try) organizing your time in a different way?
8. Couldn't we consider _____ (go) public in order to raise enough capital for the project?